

Acknowledgments

THIS ISSUE OF THE AUS was made possible by the generous gift of time and the monetary contribution of a number of individuals. First and foremost, the editors wish to thank the following individuals who devoted a great deal of time and energy to publicize the grave situation of the Annual to those among their friends concerned with Urdu language and literature, either through personal contact or through their blogs and newspapers. One even interviewed the Editor on his live radio program.
